

Examples of Game-Based Ethics Training Programs

This handout includes the instructions, and a small sample of the questions, for three game-based ethics training programs that the Federal Trade Commission has used for annual ethics training.

One is based on the TV reality show “Survivor.” The second is based on the TV game show “Who Wants to be a Millionaire.” The third is based on the TV game show “Jeopardy.”

If you would like to receive full copies of the questions for any of these programs, please contact Regina Duarte at rduarte@ftc.gov. The Survivor program is available on PowerPoint.
